County a better place to live every day!
Thank you Main Street for the work on our town!

A Lasting Tradition

A little over 391 years ago 53 surviving Pilgrims celebrated their successful harvest, as was the English custom.
They celebrated with over 90 Indian men and their leader. These people were celebrating more than just a good harvest; they were thankful for another year of life and surviving another winter. In the amazing country we live in today, with all of the hectic times and bills to pay, we lose sight of how thankful we should be. I hope you had a great Thanksgiving filled with the joy of being with family, even if they do drive you crazy, and be thankful for another year with them. We hope you have a great holiday season filled with joy and thankfulness.

A Taste Of Christmas!

Bloomfield Main Street is sponsoring the 7th annual "Taste of Christmas" recipe walk, in partnership with local merchants on Friday, November 30 and Saturday, December 1.
Participating businesses offer recipes and samples for recipe walkers during their normal business hours. Walkers are encouraged to stop by the Main Street office first, at 101 E. Franklin St., to pick up a special envelope in which to collect the recipes as well as a list of participating businesses and their store hours. For more information, call 641-664-2309.

Joke of the Week!

Two inexperienced hunters went hunting in the woods. Before long they got lost. "Don't worry," said the first hunter, "I heard that when you're lost you should fire three shots in the air that someone should hear you." They fired three shots in the air and waited a half hour. They tried again another three and nothing happened.
Finally they decided they will try it once more. "This better work," said the second hunter nervously. "These are our last arrows!"
